NOTICE OF VACANCY: Compliance Division Intern

Ad closes September 22, 2017

Duties: Compliance Division Interns are responsible for moderately complex technical duties and data management tasks associated with water and wastewater monitoring and reporting, laboratory operations, special projects, and processes quality assurance.

PAY:
- $12.00 / HOUR for undergraduate students
- $16.00 / HOUR for graduate students

WORK LOCATION: Southside Water Reclamation Plant
- 4201 2nd Street SW
- Albuquerque, NM 87105

WORK SCHEDULE:
- During school sessions: 20 hours/week
- Summer and Winter break sessions: 39 hours/week

Requirements:
- Junior status majoring in Science, Engineering or Mathematics; graduate students will be considered
- Minimum GPA 3.0
- Must maintain full-time enrollment
- Minimum of two semesters chemistry

Skills and Abilities
- Must be a self-motivated individual capable of working independently
- Knowledge of PCs: Word and Excel a must; database experience desirable
- Communicate clearly and concisely, both orally and in writing
- Ability to collect, analyze, interpret, and present scientific data and information
- Possession of a valid New Mexico Driver's License
- Ability to work in an office, laboratory and/or a variety of field environments
- Laboratory experience valuable
- Water/Wastewater treatment technology, microbiology and chemistry coursework valuable
- Statistics a plus

TO APPLY: Submit a resume, an unofficial copy of transcripts, a current class schedule and any additional materials for consideration to Dolores Apodaca, dapodaca@abcwua.org.