

Program Educational Objectives of the Bachelor of Science in Construction Management:

- Graduates will maintain high professional and ethical standards during their professional career
- Graduates will pursue professional certification and/or participate in advanced study
- Graduates will pursue leadership positions in their communities and professions

Student Outcomes of the Bachelor of Science in Construction Management:

1. An ability to identify, formulate, and solve broadly defined technical or scientific problems by applying knowledge of mathematics and science and/or technical topics to areas relevant to the discipline.
2. An ability to formulate or design a system, process, procedure or program to meet desired needs.
3. An ability to develop and conduct experiments or test hypotheses, analyze and interpret data and use scientific judgment to draw conclusions.
4. An ability to communicate effectively with a range of audiences.
5. An ability to understand ethical and professional responsibilities and the impact of technical and/or scientific solutions in global, economic, environmental, and societal contexts.
6. An ability to function effectively on teams that establish goals, plan tasks, meet deadlines, and analyze risk and uncertainty.